

SEC Thailand's Public Consultation on revising annual fee regime for intermediaries

The SEC is currently conducting a public consultation on amendments to annual fee regime. This proposed fee regime is in line with the principles including the equality of all licensee and the ease of doing business.

The SEC mission is to assure conducive environment for a fair, efficient, dynamic and inclusive capital market through supervision and development to ensure that Thai capital market would become a significant source of wealthiness for investors and a source of funding for issuers. The SEC is currently reviewing the annual fee rate as it is due to revise and propose a new annual fee regime.

The proposed annual fee would mainly consider to improve the inequality of fee rate among intermediaries conducting the same activity and to ease the burden of intermediaries by revising the period of fee payment.
